Admission – Resignation

By becoming a member of La Mutuelle the civil servant has, de facto, confirmed that he/she has read the Statutes and the Internal Rules and Regulations, has understood them and undertaken to comply with them.

Membership is open to:

- Active locally recruited staff members of an affiliated organization stationed in Geneva;
- Internationally recruited staff members of an affiliated organization. UNEP and UNICEF staff members are eligible only if stationed in Geneva.

Membership will cease upon:

- Voluntary termination of membership (in writing);
- Death;
- Separation from the United Nations system, except for retirement;
- Exclusion pronounced by a Board Sub Committee.

Documents to submit for membership

Before applying for membership, the applicant must verify his/her eligibility on www.lamutuelle.org.

The documents to be submitted are as follows:

- The membership application form duly completed and signed;
- A legible photocopy of the national passport;
- A legible copy of the carte de legitimation (only if stationed in Switzerland);
- The personnel action form (issued by the Human Resources Department);
- The form to request a secure access.

A membership fee of CHF 10 must be paid once the eligibility has been confirmed by La Mutuelle and upon its request.

Public transportation

Members benefit from reduced fares on Swiss public transportation.

A non-exhaustive information circular on public transportation, including details of services, procedures to follow and prices, is available on La Mutuelle's website or on request.

unireso

The unireso® pass lets you travel by tramway, bus, mouettes and train throughout the Franco-Valdo-Geneva region.

Active and retired members of La Mutuelle, and the spouses of retired members, benefit from reduced fares on annual passes.
